Foreword

The teachers, the students, the activities of the past year, the many graduated classes of Fairmount High School have forged the links of the lengthening chain of events which make up our school's history. Now our Senior Class has added another link in that ever-growing chain. In the following pages of the 1963 Whirlwind, we have attempted to preserve the fond memories we have all experienced during this school year. We hope that our fellow students enjoy this yearbook as much as we have enjoyed putting it together.

Dedication

In recognition of his loyal devotion to his chosen profession and his great skill as a teacher, we, the Journalism Class, dedicate the 1963 Whirlwind to Raymond William Elliott. For 36 years his participation in the education of young people of Fairmount High School has contributed to the development and the personal enrichment of their lives. His own habits of honesty, industry, and integrity have been an excellent example and motivating influence for all who have been associated with him, and his high regard for scholarship and good discipline have earned for him our sincere respect.

Class History

As the line moved on slowly, I thought to myself, "In another five minutes I will walk to the platform, take my diploma, and shake hands with Superintendent Smith. My high school career will be over. It doesn't seem as if it has been four years since our class entered Fairmount.

I remember the year we were freshmen. There were one hundred and eight in our class that year. Ed Hayes was our president; Denny Rautenkranz, vice-president; Janet Stutsman, secretary; and Winnie Clement, treasurer.

Our sponsors were Mrs. Sicks, Mr. Wright, and Mr. Monahan that first year, 1959-1960.

At our class meeting on December 4, 1959, we had a surprise initiation by the mighty seniors. In spite of the mess, we had fun. At last we felt that we really belonged to Fairmount High.

We elected Vicki Galbreath as our Homecoming attendant, and Lee Anne Titus was Queen of the Sweetheart Dance.

In our sophomore year we elected Winnie Clement, president; Jane Ann Payne, vice-president; Jerry Brewer, secretary; and Ed Hayes, treasurer. Our sponsors were Mrs. Nall, Mr. Monahan, and Mr. Caughell. Pat Mason was the Homecoming attendant. Over the summer our class had diminished to ninety-three students. We ordered our grey, black, and white class jackets, which we were very proud of. I remember our first attempts at acting. We presented four one-act plays: "Ringing in the Groom", "I'm a Fool", "Submerged", and "Ladies of the Mop".

In 1961 we began our junior year with just seventy-six members in the class. Our officers were Denny Rautenkranz, president; Jim Davis, vice-president; Barbara Powers, secretary; and Tim Selby, treasurer. Mrs. Nall, Mr. Monahan, and Mr. Caughell were our sponsors. We gave the seniors their prom at Honeywell Memorial on May 5, 1962. The theme of the prom was "Blue Hawaii". We were very excited when we received our class rings. Pat Mason was our attendant for the Homecoming, and Mary Jane Roe was chosen Queen of the Sweetheart Dance. We gave FATHER KNOWS BEST, our class play, on November 8 and 9.

As seniors, we had only seventy-two members in our class when we returned in the fall of 1962. Our officers were Denny Rautenkranz, president; Jim Davis, vice-president; Winnie Clement, secretary; and Tim Selby, treasurer.

Our sponsors were Mrs. Sicks, Mr. Wood, and Mr. Monahan. We sold magazines for the Curtis Publishing Company as our chief money-making project.

For our senior trip, we went to Chicago on April 26, 27, and 28, using most of our savings in this three-day jaunt.

We gave AROUND THE WORLD IN EIGHTY DAYS for our class play on April 4.

Lee Anne Titus was the recipient of the D.A.R. Good Citizen Award, and Pat Hanlon was the FHS Homemaker of Tomorrow.

On May 10 the juniors gave us a nice prom at Honeywell Memorial.

And tonight, May 20, 1963, only sixty-six of our original one hundred and eight are here to receive "diplomas."

All these thoughts flashed through my mind as I stepped up to get my diploma and a congratulatory handshake from Mr. Smith, making me an F.H.S. alumnus.

SENIOR

I Patsy Allison will to Joe Ricks my position as Assistant Editor of the Breeze, hoping he has as much fun (?) writing editorials as I did.

I Rebecca Bannister will to Jackie Homrighous all my good times at F.H.S.

I Jerry Brewer, being of superhuman mind and Herculean physique, hereby will to John Bagley the ability to have a wreck in Indianapolis if the Honor Society ever goes there again.

I Jim Butcher will to Chet Vetor my government book.

I Kathy Carder will my locker, number 7 in the corner behind the auditorium door, to anyone who possesses great maneuvering ability.

I Bill Carl will to Dave Nunn all of my art tools in art class.

I Winnie Clement will to Judy Stewart the well-beaten path from South Walnut Street to good ole F.H.S. with the stipulation that she pass it on down to other "Walnuts".

I James Curless will to Tim Reynolds all the arguments I lost to the teachers during my high school career.

I James Davis will to my brother Dave my football uniform, that is, if he can slim down enough to get into it.

I Linda Davis will to Mary Ann Parker the ability to keep her hair blond throughout her high school days without too much of it falling out plus all the good times I've had at and away from F.H.S.

I Gary DeDecker will to Larry Thurman the ability to grow as much as I did during my senior year.

I Sandra Duncan will my slightly used World Geography book to Janet Sellers, who promises she will make better use of it than I did.

I Tom Dunham, being of superior strength, mind and intelligence, will my map of all the lonely country roads in Grant County to my little brother Dan.

I Chuck Elliott, being of rather unsound mind and body, will to Bill Holder my position on the varsity bench.

I Max Engle will to Jim Hamilton and Tim Shane my superb body and athletic ability.

I Pat Evans will to Florence Scudi my knack for driving Mrs. Nall as crazy as I have for the past three years.

I Benjamin Foster will to Sharon Starkey all my heart.

I Bob Fox will to my brother Allen my great singing ability with the hope that he can charm all of the girls in his class as well as I did the ones in mine.

I Georgia Frye will all my good times as a "Greenie" to next year's Frosh and my senior year to my pal Jaci Leach, because she can take disappointment well.

I Patryce Gaddis will to my brother Fred my promptness in getting places on time; he needs it.

I Vernon Gallion will my football suit to my brother Orville.

I Barbara Haisley will to my cousin, Judy Brinkman, my position in Journalism and my ability to make passing grades in school without much effort.

I Dennis Haisley will to Jim Brinkman all my good times in Advanced Speech Class, if he thinks he can stand it.

I Gary Haisley, being an honorable man of many fine talents, will my ability to get along with girls and my skill as a driver to my brother Jerry.

I Thelma Hampton will my talent for talking and my good grades in Psychology to Willie and James Hampton.

I Pat Hanlon will to my "little" brother Steve, my locker with the hope that he keeps it more neatly than the one he had this past year.

I Lois Hardwick will to Alice Millspaugh the privilege of taking U. S. History two years, just as I did.

I Ursuella Harrold will my personal charm in getting along with most teachers of Fairmount High to my brother Raleigh.

I Peggy Harvey will to my "little" brother Dee the swivel chair Mr. Davison is going to get for me in Salesmanship Class.

I Ruby Hawk will to Alice Roy my ability to graduate, I hope, from F.H.S.

I Ed Hayes will my number 34 football jersey to Dan Roth and sincerely hope he has fewer injuries with it than I had.

I Barbara Hipes will to Linda and Patsy Small my nerve pills to help keep them from having ulcers from riding on our school bus another year.

I Steve Horine will my World Geography book to anyone who likes to sleep.

I Lois Hubbard will my front seat in Government Class to an underclassman who is willing to share it with the spiders and bugs.

WILLS

I Brenda Hyatt will my inability to hardly ever come to school a full week during my high school years to Shirley Duckett.

I Gloria Jarvis will to Diana Morrical all the lockers I've had in the south hallway, because she will probably need them for all her junk.

I Jim Jones will my Government book to any one who likes to sleep.

I Margaret Kientz will Hannah Kientz my positions on the Breeze and Whirlwind staffs.

I Jim Kirk will my cough medicine to Roger Keith.

I Bonnie Leisure will my good times at good old F.H.S. to my brother Phil.

I Mary McCracken will my four years of riding the school bus to Debbie Haynes, who can, perhaps, stay awake better than I did.

I Becky Mart will my calm attitude along with all my good times at F.H.S. to Pam Harting.

I Patty Mason will my number 91 bowling ball at the Plaza to Bonnie Baker, who tried to get it all this year.

I Bill Mitchener will my three-speed, single-barrel, non-traction, 109 to Marvin Holloway if he thinks he can keep it running.

I Tom Monahan will my drumsticks to a person that doesn't know how to use them, Dan Rogers.

I Lillie Moore, being of sound mind (?), will to my cousin Kay Moore my method for getting up late every morning and still arrive at my first period class before the last bell rings.

I Ronald Mullen will Van Brown all desks with my name carved on them in Fairmount High School.

I Garry Newhouse, being of sound mind and strong body, am going to take everything with me.

I Mike Newton will my luck (so far) in avoiding getting a ticket to all boys who are planning to buy a car.

I Jane Ann Payne will to Terry Haisley my bottle of Contacsol and my good fortune not losing my contact lenses my senior year.

I Shirley Pettiford will to Charlene McCarter my system of not attending school a full week without being accused of playing hookey.

I Denny Rautenkranz will my nickname "Raut" to Jannell Vogel.

I Jim Richards will my many pleasures as a student at old F.H.S. to my sister Peggy.

I Mary Jane Roe will my fate to have a boy friend willing to stuff the ballot box at the Sweetheart Dance to any girl in Fairmount High.

I Bob Rupert will to David Brubaker all my girls I didn't have in the first place.

I Brenda Scott will all my happy, care-free days at F.H.S. to Sharon Beouy.

I Tim Selby will to my brother John my fantastic ability to write neatly, uniformly, but also illegibly.

I Barbara Shoffner will all the excitement I have had as a senior to anyone who has enough steel nerves to hold up under it.

I Ronald Snipes will to Susan Bunch my car, with the hope that she has as much trouble with it as I had.

I Milton Starkey will to my brother Bob the knack of getting into ten times as much trouble in high school as I have.

I Janet Stutsman will to Sharon Harshman all the boring hours I spent studying algebra, and I hope she enjoys them.

I Lee Anne Titus will to my little brother Tim my honor as Homecoming Queen, if he thinks he can change tradition.

I Mike Underwood will to my brothers, Jim and Terry, the ability to stay away from the many hazards of this school.

I David Vogel will to Marvin Brewer and Phil Sicks the extra duties which I did during the first of the year as basketball student manager.

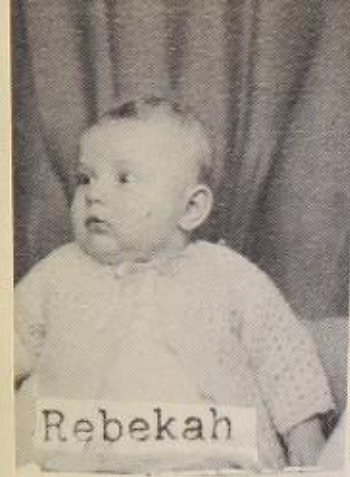

I Mike Whitson will my police record and finger prints to Kenny Little.

I Phil Williams will to Ted Hiatt my strange ability to do anything and everything at F.H.S. and not get away with any of it.

I Beth Anne Winegardner will my Advanced Home Ec. class to any girl who can pass it by herself and get along with the "Greenies" at the same time.

I Jim "Cool Cat" Wood, being of "twisting" mind and a 175-pound body, do hereby will my bongos, sunglasses, beard, hat with feather, and my little red book with 37 girls' names in it to my cousin Randy Brewer.

Quakerettes

INSTRUCTORS
Susan Hackney
Delean Thomas

This was Susan Hackney's and Delean Thomas's first year of directing the Quakerettes. Previously Mrs. Martha Jean Null was the instructor. Captain Bobbie Jo Howell succeeded Susan Hackney, who graduated last year. Barbara Moore was the co-captain. Twenty-two Quakerettes made up the 1962-63 twirling corps. The girls presented between-game shows at practically all home basketball games, often working out an intricate routine with the band.

Assistant Coaches Richard (Pete) Beck, Roger Voreis and Head Coach Larry Wright.

Head Coach Larry Wright

Ed Hayes (2)

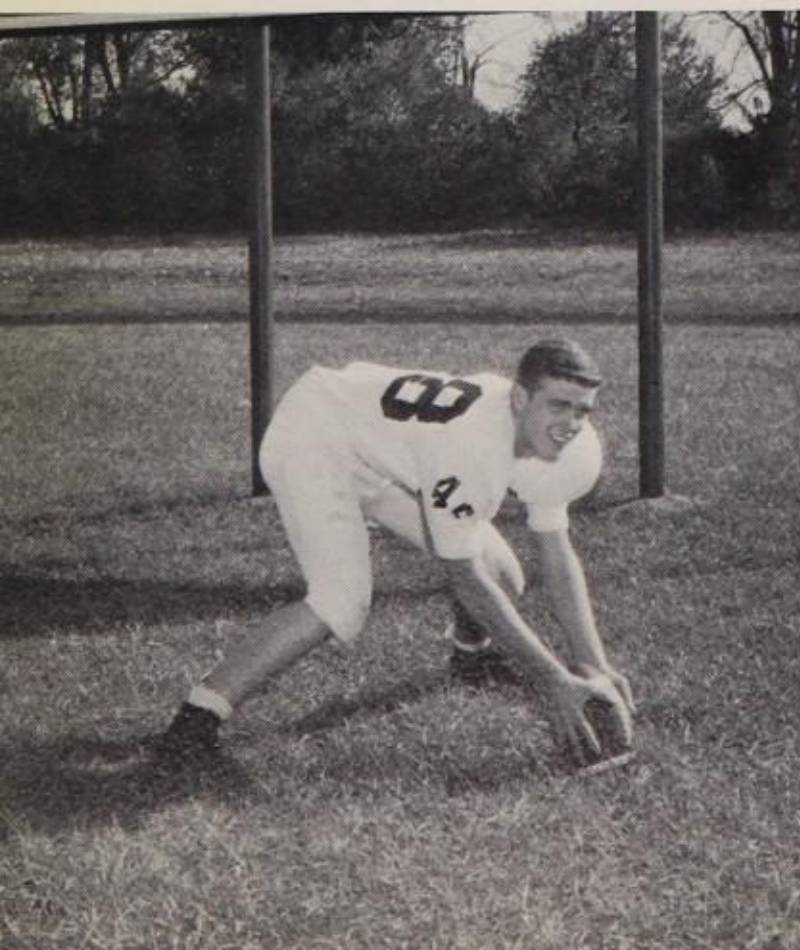

"Root" was a good all-round football player. He played both offensive and defensive tackle. His attitude and leadership were outstanding. He was an asset to the team, not only for his ability, but also for his unquenchable loyalty.

Gary Haisley (2)

"Goph" played center on offense and was used at end and tackle on defense. He was a hard-working individual, and his desire to excel was unmatched. He set very good standards for himself and was a worthy football player.

Tom Dunham (2)

Tom was short on size but long on determination and courage. He played guard and tackle on defense and offense with equal ability. His spirited character was a fine example for all to pattern after.

Jim Davis (2)

"Camel" played primarily at the offensive end position. He was a fine blocker. He was self-sacrificing, a trait worthy of his fine attitude. Jim exemplifies those characteristics which make for ideal sportsmanship.

Jim Richards (2)

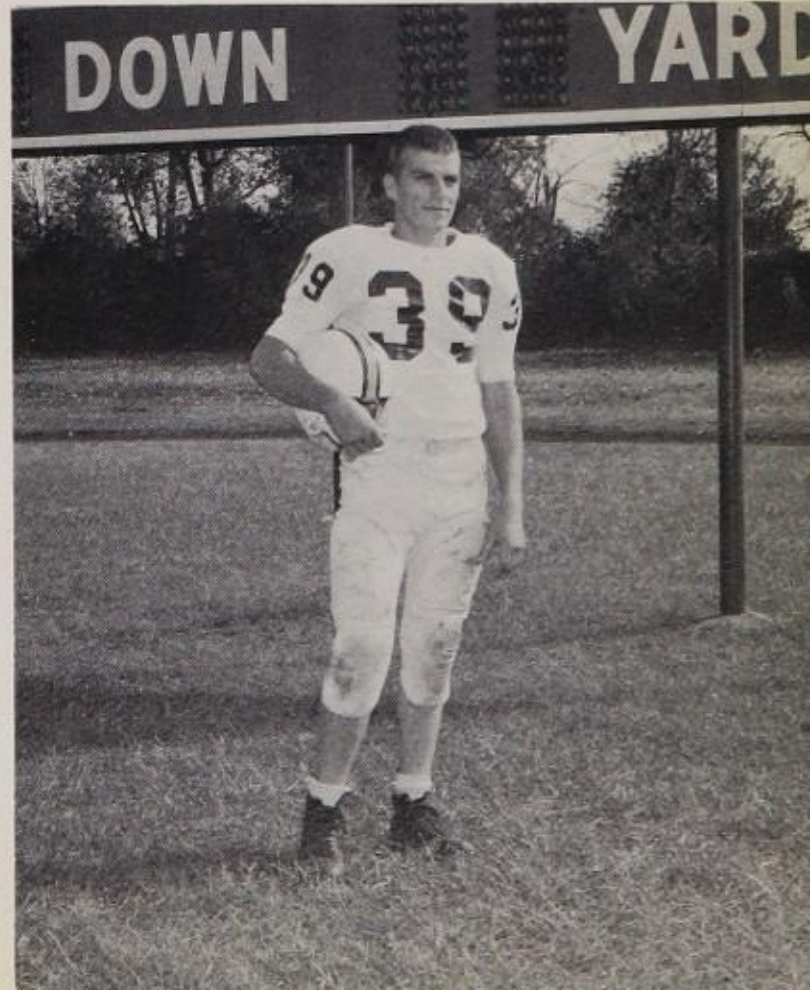

Jim is a determined young man with worthy attitudes. A fine rewarding individual to himself and to his team. Jim played as both offensive and defensive guard. He was a dedicated and co-operative football player.

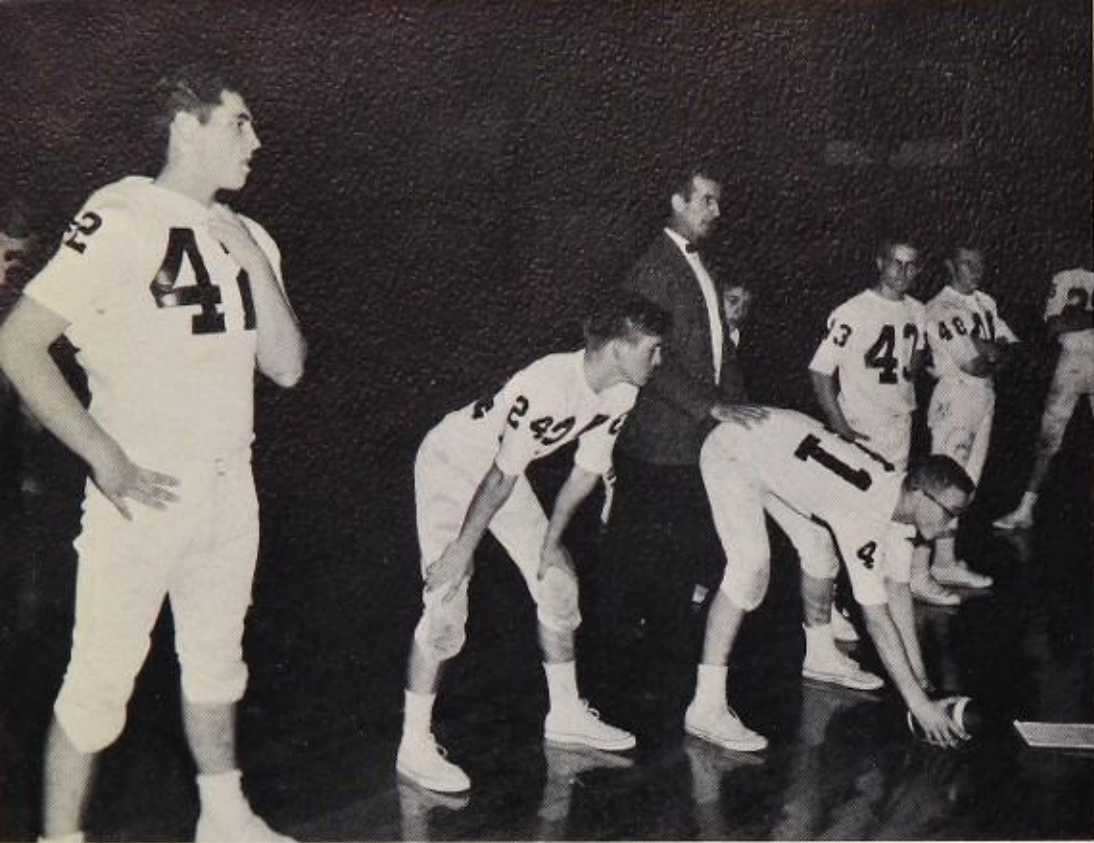

Jim Wood (2)

Jim was a lineman in his own right. Injuries prevented him from reaching his potential. He lacked neither courage nor the ability to reach any goal available to him. Jim is a fine gentleman and a worthy team member.

Vernon Gallion (2)

Vern was a highly-spirited person who gave everything he had to any challenge that confronted him. He played a defensive specialist at the tackle position. His desire and determination were outstanding. This boy set a fine example in co-operation and spirit.

Ed "Root" Hayes
5'11" Guard, Senior

Ed was a good playmaker. He could drive hard when the opportunity would arise. He was a good listener and could play any position on the floor in our pattern-type offense. He was a three-letter winner.

Max "Ding" Engle
5'10" Guard, Senior

Max was the possessor of good speed and a fine jump shot. Plagued with weak ankles for his four varsity seasons, he still gave the game all he had.

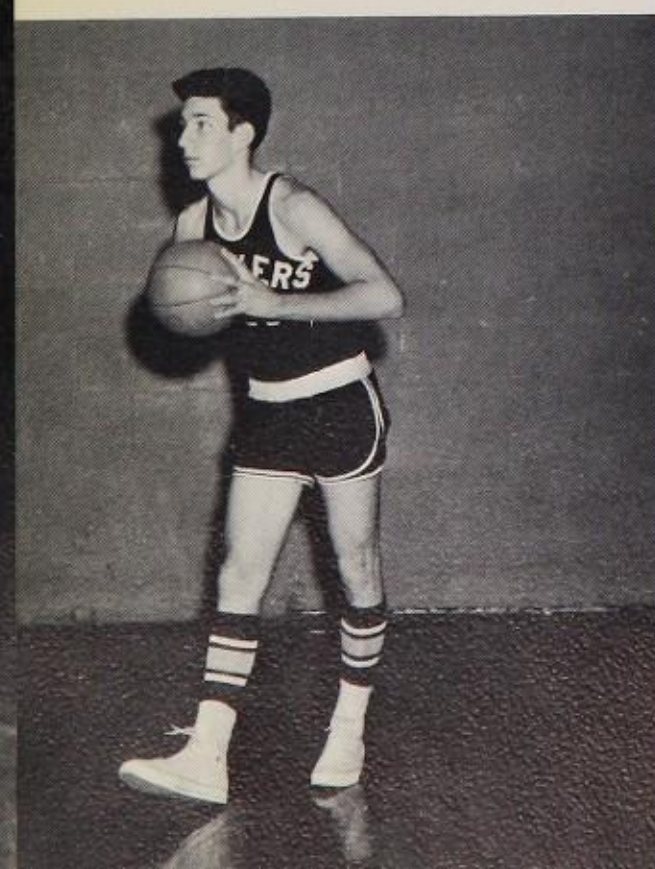

Charles "Chuck" Elliott
6'1" Center, Senior

Charlie was a center with all the moves. Although he was never a starter, he was not a quitter and could always be depended upon for a good relief job. He was a two-year letter winner.

Jim "Colonel" Kirk
6'0" Forward, Senior

Jim had one of the finest fade-away jump shots in the book. What he lacked in defense he made up for in hustle. He was a strong rebounder. Jim lettered two years.

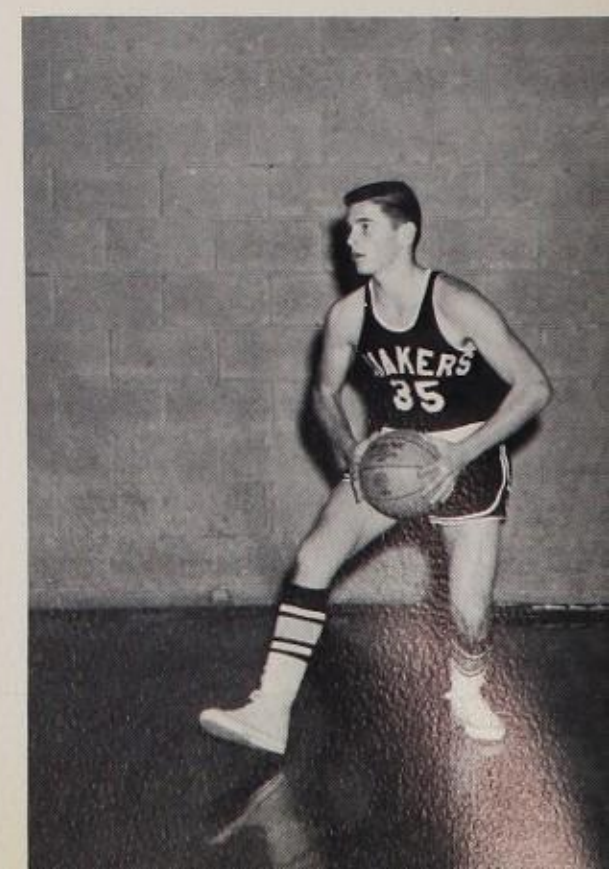

Milton "Uncle Milt" Starkey
6'3" Forward, Senior

Milton was deadly in close with his jump shot. He had the fine ability to jump, look, then pass or shoot. He was a good strong rebounder. Milton has lettered two years at F.H.S.

Jim "Mort" Hamilton
5'8" Guard, Junior

Jim really came into his own this season. He had very good speed and developed into an excellent defensive player. He also developed an effective jump shot which kept him scoring in the double figures. He is a first-year letter winner.

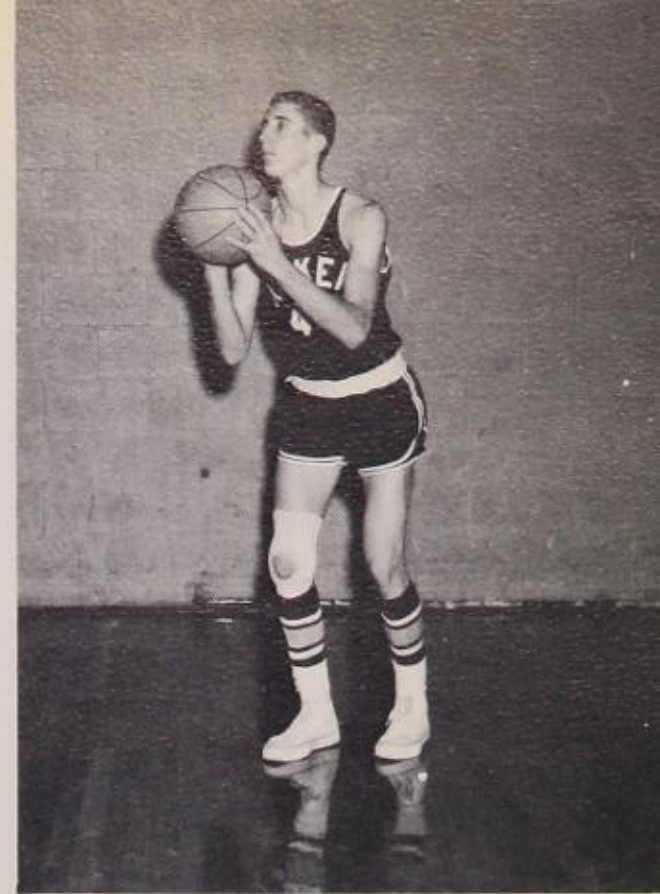

Joe "Big Joe" Ricks
6'3" Center, Junior

Joe played most of the season on the B-Team, but he came on strong mid-season and did an excellent job playing both B-Team and Varsity. He was a strong rebounder and had a deadly 15-foot jump shot.

Larry "Barnie" Barnes
6'0" Guard & Forward, Junior

Larry was a deadly shooter from almost any place on the floor. If he had a weakness, it would have to be his defensive play. He always gave 100%. At mid-season he was shooting 43% from the field and 83% from the foul line. This was his first year to letter.

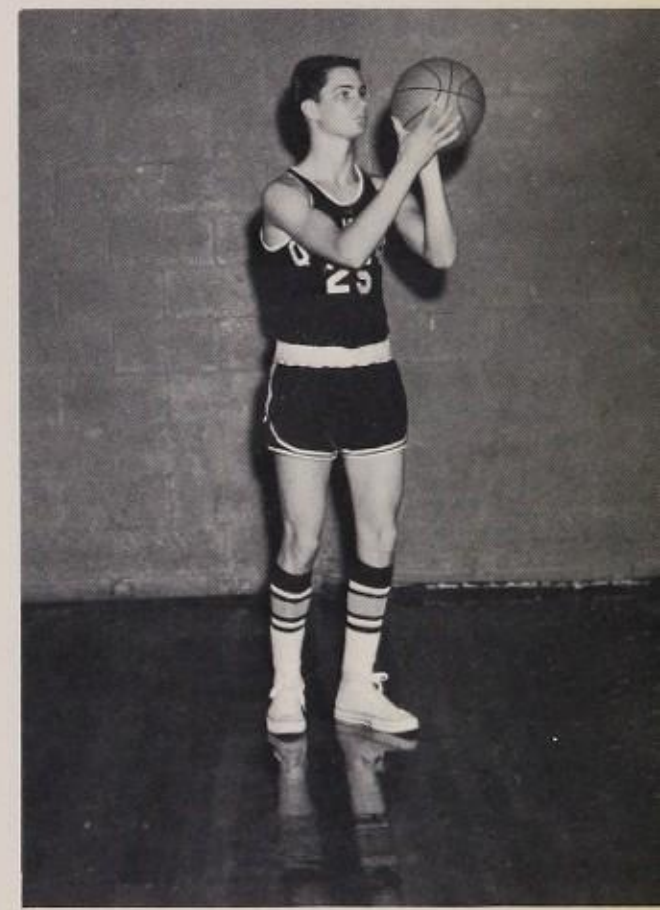

Van "Winkie" Hasty
5'7" Guard, Junior

Van played most of the season on the B-Team; however, he did gain some valuable experience with the Varsity. He had a good outside set shot. He needs to play and shoot a lot of summer basketball.

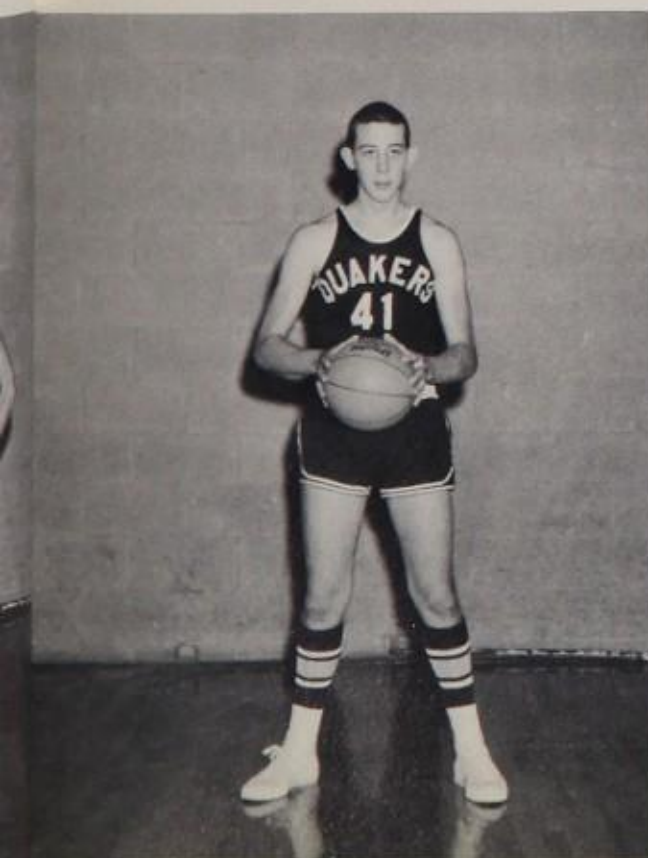

Richard "Woody" Wood
6'0" Forward, Sophomore

Woody was a good shooter from out on the floor and a good hustler. With a lot of hard work between seasons he should become a great ball player for F.H.S. This was his first year to letter.

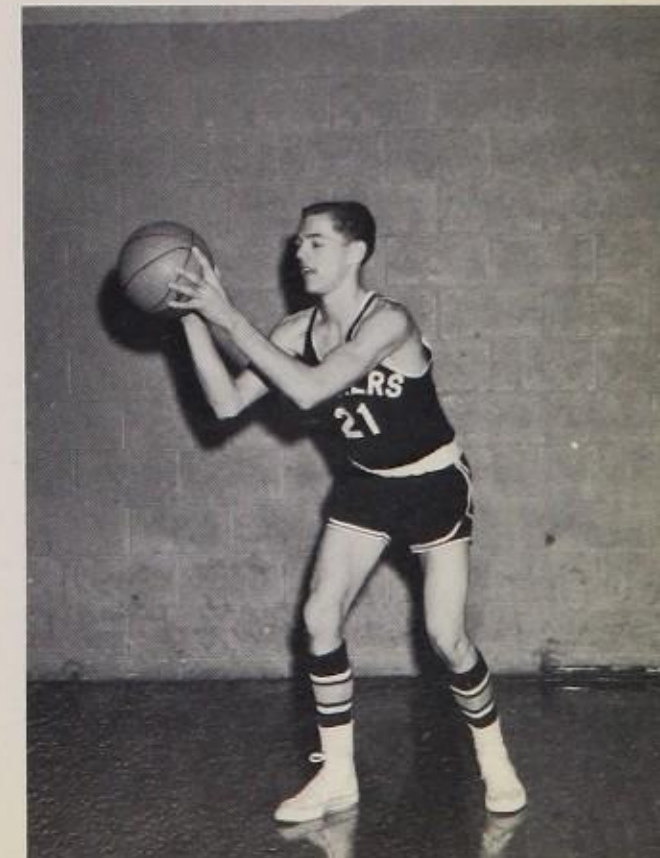

Steve "Odie" Martin
6'3" Center, Sophomore

Steve played great basketball for the Quakers this year. He was a strong rebounder and always chipped in his share of the points. He needs to develop a shot he can depend on; then watch out.

Reece "Reecie" Peacock
6'0" Forward, Sophomore

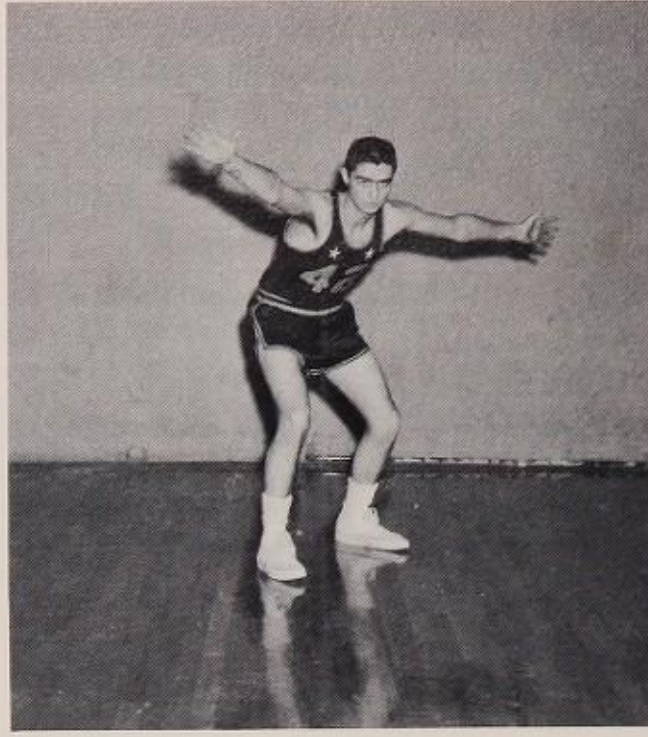

Reece showed lots of drive and hustle his first year on the Varsity. He was a good rebounder and worked extra hard at playing defense. If he develops one good shot during the summer, he'll be hard to handle next season.
